Bluehour

Simple, delicious and classic describes the Mediterranean cuisine created in the Bluehour kitchen each night. The menu is printed daily, but Bluehour standards remain, like the pillowy potato gnocchi with black truffle and the perfectly seared, bacon wrapped sea scallops. Their cheese cart is among the finest on the West Coast, featuring regional and international artisan cheeses.

Jo Bar and Rotisserie

Posh and warm, this uptown eatery is where you will find the uppercrust Nob Hill/Westover/Northwest 23rd District set. The only place in town where cocktails go well with flame-broiled burgers, nearly all the dishes are fired in the restaurant's two wood-burning ovens. Tenderly roasted duck, lamb, chicken, fish and pork are the main attraction, while innovative pizzas and pastas broaden the spectrum. A branch of Papa Haydn, it is not surprising this place has become so popular.
